

RSNA-MIRC Public License

1. RSNA MIRC Public License Version 2.0

THIS LICENSE APPLIES TO ALL SOURCE CODE MODULES THAT CONTAIN THE NOTATION:

This source software is released under the terms of the RSNA Public License.

1. DEFINITIONS

"Source Code Module" means a computer program source code file.

"Original Module" means the original version of a Source Code Module as distributed by the Radiological Society of North America, Inc. ("RSNA").

"Derivative Work" means any computer program, either in source or object form, which incorporates Original Modules in whole or in part.

"Recipient" means anyone who receives Original Modules or Derivative Works under this Agreement.

2. GRANT OF RIGHTS

- a. The RSNA hereby grants to each Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyright license to use, reproduce, publicly display, publicly perform, and distribute Original Modules.
- b. The RSNA hereby grants to each Recipient a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyright license to prepare Derivative Works and to publicly display, publicly perform, sell, distribute and sublicense such Derivative Works.
- c. Recipient understands that the RSNA provides no assurances that the Original Modules do not infringe the patent or other intellectual property rights of any other entity. The RSNA disclaims any liability to Recipients for claims brought by any other entity based on infringement of intellectual property rights or otherwise. As a condition to exercising the rights and licenses granted hereunder, each Recipient hereby assumes sole responsibility to secure any other intellectual property rights needed, if any. For example, if a third party patent license is required to allow Recipient to distribute the Original Modules or Derivative Works, it is Recipient's responsibility to acquire that license before distributing the Program.

3. REQUIREMENTS

A Recipient may choose to distribute Original Modules or Derivative works in source or object code form under its own license agreement, provided that it complies with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

When Derivative Works are made available in source code form, any unmodified Original Modules that are included must retain the copyright notice and the notation referencing this agreement. Any modified Original Modules must contain a notation identifying the developer of the Derivative Work in a manner that reasonably allows subsequent Recipients to identify the developer.

4. COMMERCIAL DISTRIBUTION

Commercial distributors of Derivative Works may accept certain responsibilities with respect to end users, business partners and the like. While this license is intended to facilitate the commercial use of Original Modules in Derivative Works, a distributor who includes Original Modules in a commercial product offering must do so in a manner that does not create potential liability for the RSNA. Therefore, if a distributor ("Commercial Distributor") includes Original Modules in a commercial product offering, such Commercial Distributor hereby agrees to defend and indemnify the RSNA against any losses, damages and costs arising from claims, lawsuits and other legal actions brought by a third party against the RSNA to the extent caused by or based upon the acts or omissions of such Commercial Distributor in connection with its distribution of the Derivative Work in a commercial product offering.

5. NO WARRANTY

EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, THE ORIGINAL MODULES ARE PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. Each Recipient is solely responsible for determining the appropriateness of using and distributing the Original Modules and assumes all risks associated with its exercise of rights under this Agreement, including but not limited to the risks and costs of programming errors, compliance with applicable laws, damage to or loss of data, programs or equipment, and unavailability or interruption of operations.

6. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY

EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, NO RECIPIENT SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOST PROFITS), HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR TORT (INCLUDING STRICT LIABILITY, NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE USE OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE ORIGINAL MODULES OR THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS GRANTED HEREUNDER, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

7. GENERAL

If any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, it shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the terms of this Agreement, and without further action by the parties hereto, such provision shall be reformed to the minimum extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable.

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Illinois and the intellectual property laws of the United States of America. No party to this Agreement may bring a legal action under this Agreement more than one year after the cause of action arose. Each party waives its rights to a jury trial in any resulting litigation.
